

UPES signs pact with Phillips

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

DEHRADUN, AUGUST 17

The University of Petroleum and Energy Studies (UPES) has entered into an agreement with Phillips Carbon Black Limited to align itself to the 'Skill India Mission'.

PCBL is among the largest manufacturers of carbon black in the country.

The MoU was signed by Registrar Abhay Sharma on behalf of the UPES and Sabyasachi Bhattacharya, chief of HR & IT, PCBL.

Arun Dhand, director of media affairs, UPES, said it would be a 100 per cent industry-run programme to provide an opportunity to the students to work closely with the carbon black industry. Dr SJ Chopra, Chancellor of the UPES, shared that such industry-academia associations was the need of the hour as India was poised to become a manufacturing hub. Dr Shrihari, VC of the UPES, said more such MoUs would be made shortly in other fields.
